2 Application of principles for land development

(a) shall also apply to the actions of the State and a local government body;

(c) serve as guidelines by reference to which any competent authority shall exercise any discretion or take any decision in terms of this Act or any other law dealing with land development, including any such law dealing with the subdivision, use and planning of or in respect of land; and

(d) for the purposes of-

(i) Chapter II, serve as the general framework within which the Commission shall perform its functions and make recommendations and within which those recommendations shall be considered by any competent authority;

(ii) Chapter III, serve as principles by reference to which a tribunal shall reach decisions;

(iii) Chapter IV, provide the guidelines with which the formulation and implementation of land development objectives of local government bodies and the carrying out of land development projects shall be consistent;

(iv) Chapters V and VI, guide the consideration of land development applications and the performance of functions in relation to land development; and

(v) Chapter VII, guide the administration of the registration of land tenure rights.

3 General principles for land development

(1) The following general principles apply, on the basis set out in section 2, to all land development:

(a) Policy, administrative practice and laws should provide for urban and rural land development and should facilitate the development of formal and informal, existing and new settlements.

(b) Policy, administrative practices and laws should discourage the illegal occupation of land, with due recognition of informal land development processes.

(c) Policy, administrative practice and laws should promote efficient and integrated land development in that they-

- (i) promote the integration of the social, economic, institutional and physical aspects of land development;
- (ii) promote integrated land development in rural and urban areas in support of each other;
- (iii) promote the availability of residential and employment opportunities in close proximity to or integrated with each other;
- (iv) optimise the use of existing resources including such resources relating to agriculture, land, minerals, bulk infrastructure, roads, transportation and social facilities;
- (v) promote a diverse combination of land uses, also at the level of individual erven or subdivisions of land;
- (vi) discourage the phenomenon of "urban sprawl" in urban areas and contribute to the development of more compact towns and cities;
- (vii) contribute to the correction of the historically distorted spatial patterns of settlement in the Republic and to the optimum use of existing infrastructure in excess of current needs; and
- (viii) encourage environmentally sustainable land development practices and processes.

(d) Members of communities affected by land development should actively participate in the process of land development.

(e) The skills and capacities of disadvantaged persons involved in land development should be developed.

(f) Policy, administrative practice and laws should encourage and optimise the contributions of all sectors of the economy (government and non-government) to land development so as to maximise the Republic's capacity to undertake land development and to this end, and without derogating from the generality of this principle-

- (i) national, provincial and local governments should strive clearly to define and make known the required functions and responsibilities of all sectors of the economy in relation to land development as well as the desired relationship between such sectors; and
- (ii) a competent authority in national, provincial or local government responsible for the administration of any law relating to land development shall provide particulars of the identity of legislation administered by it, the posts and names of persons responsible for the administration of such legislation and the addresses and locality of the offices of such persons to any person who requires such information.

(g) Laws, procedures and administrative practice relating to land development should-

- (i) be clear and generally available to those likely to be affected thereby;
- (ii) in addition to serving as regulatory measures, also provide guidance and information to those affected thereby;
- (iii) be calculated to promote trust and acceptance on the part of those likely to be affected thereby; and
- (iv) give further content to the fundamental rights set out in the Constitution.

(h) Policy, administrative practice and laws should promote sustainable land development at the required scale in that they should-

- (i) promote land development which is within the fiscal, institutional and administrative means of the Republic;
- (ii) promote the establishment of viable communities;
- (iii) promote sustained protection of the environment;
- (iv) meet the basic needs of all citizens in an affordable way; and
- (v) ensure the safe utilisation of land by taking into consideration factors such as geological formations and hazardous undermined areas.

(i) Policy, administrative practice and laws should promote speedy land development.

(j) Each proposed land development area should be judged on its own merits and no particular use of land, such as residential, commercial, conservational, industrial, community facility, mining, agricultural or public use, should in advance or in general be regarded as being less important or desirable than any other use of land.

(k) Land development should result in security of tenure, provide for the widest possible range of tenure alternatives, including individual and communal tenure, and in cases where land development takes the form of upgrading an existing settlement, not deprive beneficial occupiers of homes or land or, where it is necessary for land or homes occupied by them to be utilised for other purposes, their interests in such land or homes should be reasonably accommodated in some other manner.

(l) A competent authority at national, provincial and local government level should co-ordinate the interests of the various sectors involved in or affected by land development so as to minimise conflicting demands on scarce resources.

(m) Policy, administrative practice and laws relating to land development should stimulate the effective functioning of a land development market based on open competition between suppliers of goods and services.

(2) The Minister may by notice in the Gazette-

(a) prescribe any principle for land development in addition to, but not inconsistent with, the principles set out in subsection (1); and

(b) A list of principles prescribed under subsection (2) shall be laid upon the Table of Parliament in the same manner as the list referred to in section 17 of the Interpretation Act, 1957 (Act 33 of 1957), and if Parliament by resolution disapproves of any such principles or any provision thereof, such principles or provision shall cease to be of force and effect, but without prejudice to the validity of anything done in terms of such principles or such provision before it so ceased to be of force and effect, or to any right or liability acquired or incurred in terms of such principles or such provision before it so ceased to be of force and effect.

(5) (a) The Premier shall, before prescribing any principle or policy under subsection (3), cause a draft of such principle or policy to be published in the Provincial Gazette and shall consider any comment on such draft principle or policy received from any person during the period thirty days after such publication.

(1) A tribunal is hereby established for each province in each case to be known as the development tribunal of the province concerned.

(2) A tribunal consists of a chairperson, a deputy chairperson and the other member or members appointed from time to time by the Premier with the approval of the provincial legislature.

(3) The chairperson, deputy chairperson and the other member or members of a tribunal shall be appointed by reason of their qualifications in and knowledge or experience of land development or the law and shall be persons who are in the Premier's opinion competent to perform the functions assigned to them in terms of this Chapter.

(4) (a) As far as may be practicable in the circumstances, one half of the members of a tribunal shall be appointed from appropriate officers in the service of a provincial administration and officers in the service of local government bodies in a province, and the other half from persons outside such service.

(b) Prior to the appointment of a person as a member of a tribunal, the Premier shall-

(i) make known his or her intention so to appoint such person by notice in the Provincial Gazette;

(ii) take into account any comment or objection, in respect of such appointment, which might be received by him or her from any person or body; and

(iii) submit his or her proposals together with any such comment or objection to the provincial legislature for its approval of the appointment of such person as a tribunal member: Provided that if the provincial legislature is not in session at the time when the Premier wishes to make an appointment, and if in the opinion of the Premier it is desirable to make an appointment subject to the subsequent approval thereof by the provincial legislature, the Premier may make such an appointment. If during its ensuing next session the provincial legislature disapproves or fails to approve such appointment, it shall lapse. Pending such approval or disapproval, the provisions of subsections (5) to (12) shall mutatis mutandis apply to a person appointed as member of the tribunal in terms of this proviso as if he or she had been appointed with the approval of the provincial legislature.

(5) The chairperson, deputy chairperson and the other member or members of a tribunal hold office for the period specified by the Premier upon their appointment and are appointed on the conditions, including conditions relating to the payment of remuneration and allowances, determined by him or her with the concurrence of the MEC responsible for the treasury function.

(2) A tribunal (or any member or members thereof) conducting an investigation may-

(a) subpoena any person who in its opinion may be able to give material information concerning the subject of the enquiry, or who it suspects or believes has in his or her possession or custody or under his or her control any book, document or thing which has a bearing upon the subject of the enquiry, to appear before it at a time and place specified in the subpoena, to be questioned or to produce that book, document or thing; and

(b) retain for examination any book, document or thing so produced.

(3) A tribunal may call and administer an oath to or accept an affirmation from any person present at an enquiry who was or might have been subpoenaed in terms of subsection (2)(a) and may interrogate him or her and require him or her to produce any book, document or thing in his or her possession or custody or under his or her control.

(4) Any person subpoenaed to appear before a tribunal may, if the tribunal registrar is satisfied that he or she has by reason of his or her appearance in obedience to the subpoena suffered any pecuniary loss or been put to any personal expense, be paid from moneys appropriated by the legislature of the province such allowances as the Premier may with the concurrence of the MEC responsible for the treasury function in the province from time to time determine, or the amount of any such loss or expense, whichever is the lesser: Provided that if the person subpoenaed is in the full-time employment of the State or a local government body, the allowances or amount payable to him or her shall be determined in accordance with the laws governing his or her employment.

22 Mediation

(1) If any party to a dispute serving before a tribunal applies to the tribunal for the appointment of a mediator, the tribunal may, or if the tribunal is, after an enquiry contemplated in section 4(2)(c), of the opinion that any dispute serving before it should, before any further inquiry by the tribunal is held, first be referred to mediation, the tribunal shall, after consultation with the parties to any dispute, appoint a person, acceptable to all parties to the dispute, as a mediator in such dispute: Provided that should all the parties to the dispute not be able to reach agreement on the person to be so appointed, the tribunal may appoint any person from the panel of mediators referred to in subsection (2) to act as a mediator in that dispute.

(4) A mediator appointed under subsection (1) shall confer with the parties to a dispute, conduct such enquiries and investigations as he or she may deem necessary, endeavour to bring about a settlement in the dispute and make a report to the tribunal as to the results of his or her mediation and for these purposes shall have all the powers conferred on a tribunal by section 18(2) and (3).

(5) All discussions taking place and all disclosures and submissions made during mediation shall be privileged, unless the parties agree to the contrary.

23 Appeals against tribunal decisions

(1) Any decision or determination by a tribunal is final: Provided that any party to a dispute relating to a matter referred to in section 16(a) or (b) (ii) may within the period and in the manner prescribed by the rules made under section 26, appeal against the decision of a tribunal in regard to that dispute or any related order as to costs, to the development appeal tribunal for a province established or recognised under section 24.

(2) Pending an appeal in terms of subsection (1), a tribunal may on application make such interim order as it deems reasonable.

24 Establishment of development appeal tribunal

(1) A Premier shall, by notice in the Provincial Gazette-

(6) A member of a development appeal tribunal shall not take part in the discussion of or the making of decisions about any matter before the development appeal tribunal in which he or she or his or her spouse, immediate family, partner or employer, including the State or a local government body (but only where the State or such local government body is a land development applicant or objector in such matter) or the partner or employer of his or her spouse has, directly or indirectly, any pecuniary interest.

25 Review by Supreme Court

(1) Without derogating from the constitutional right of any person to gain access to a court of law, the proceedings of a tribunal or of a development appeal tribunal may be brought under review before any division of the Supreme Court having jurisdiction under the Supreme Court Act, 1959 (Act 59 of 1959).

(2) To the extent that a review relates to an interested person's rights which have been affected as a result of a mistake of law as to the suspension under section 34 of a servitude or restrictive condition of title or as to the suspension under section 33(2)(j) or 51(2)(d) of the operation of a law, the review court may nevertheless review the matter if, in the absence of such mistake, the decision of the tribunal or development appeal tribunal could not reasonably be justified on the facts found by the tribunal or development appeal tribunal.

(3) A review court may regard review proceedings referred to in subsections (1) and (2) as sufficiently urgent to justify non-compliance with the ordinary rules of such court, if delays in the land development concerned will probably adversely affect the ability of intended beneficiaries to afford sites or housing units, or will probably adversely affect a substantial number of persons or persons with particularly pressing needs.

26 Rules of procedure

(1) The Minister may in respect of a tribunal and a development appeal tribunal established or recognised under section 24 make, amend or repeal rules regulating-

(f) the period within which an appeal under section 23 shall be noted;

(g) the order of preference to be given to matters serving before a tribunal or development appeal tribunal, in order to ensure that priority is given to matters where delays are likely to adversely affect the ability of intended beneficiaries to afford sites or housing units, or are likely to affect a substantial number of persons or persons with particularly pressing needs;

(h) generally all matters necessary for or incidental to the exercise of the powers and the performance of the functions of a tribunal or development appeal tribunal.

(2) A Premier may, with the concurrence of the Minister, repeal or amend any rule made under subsection (1) in respect of a province.

(3) The provisions of section 46(3) shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to rules made, amended or repealed under subsection (1).

(4) (a) The Premier shall, before he or she repeals or amends any rule under subsection (2), cause a draft of such repeal or amendment to be published in the Provincial Gazette and shall consider any comment on such draft repeal or amendment received from any person during the period 30 days after such publication.

(b) A list of repeals or amendments made under subsection (2) shall be submitted to the provincial legislature, and if such provincial legislature by resolution disapproves of any such repeal or amendment or any provision thereof, such repeal or amendment, or such provision, shall cease to be of force and effect, but without prejudice to the validity of anything done in terms of such repeal, amendment or such provision before it so ceased to be of force and effect, or to any right or liability acquired or incurred in terms of such repeal, amendment or such provision before it so ceased to be of force and effect.

(a) in respect of any particular local government area, by the local government body having jurisdiction, with the approval of the MEC, which approval shall not be refused unless-

(i) the land development objectives in the opinion of the MEC fail to deal adequately with the subject matter to which land development objectives in terms of section 28 shall relate; or

(ii) the land development objectives are, in the opinion of the MEC, inconsistent or cannot be reconciled with other objectives set or planning done in terms of any other law in the province; or

(iii) the procedures and other requirements prescribed under subsection (3) have, in the opinion of the MEC, not been complied with,

and the MEC has, on request therefor, provided the local government body concerned with his or her written reasons for having an opinion referred to in subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii), as the case may be; and

(b) outside such local government area, by the MEC.

(2) If a local government body fails to set land development objectives, either generally or in respect of any particular case, within a period of time prescribed by the MEC in the Provincial Gazette, the MEC may set land development objectives in respect of that local government area, and objectives so set shall prevail over objectives subsequently set by the local government body.

(3) Land development objectives shall be set in the manner, within the time limits and after following the procedures prescribed by the MEC in the Provincial Gazette.

(4) The procedures referred to in subsection (3) shall include procedures relating to-

(a) the manner in which members of the public and interested bodies shall be consulted in the setting of land development objectives; and

(b) the manner in which the setting of land development objectives shall be co-ordinated with the functions of any department of State or other authority responsible for the administration or formulation of any plan dealing with subject matter which is the same as or similar to the subject matter set out in section 28.

(5) The Minister may, at the request of the MEC, perform the functions assigned to and exercise the powers conferred on the MEC by this Chapter.

29 Effect of land development objectives and other plans

(1) A tribunal or any other competent authority shall not approve a land development application in terms of this Act or any other law dealing with the establishment of land development areas, if such application is inconsistent with any land development objective contemplated in this Chapter: Provided that no provision in this Chapter shall be so construed that it entails the delay of any land development application where no land development objectives have been set.

(2) If a land development objective set in terms of this Chapter is expressly inconsistent or incompatible with any plan as defined in section 1 of the Physical Planning Act, 1991 (Act 125 of 1991), the land development objective shall prevail over the plan and the plan shall for the purposes of that Act be deemed to have been amended accordingly.

(3) Despite anything to the contrary contained in the Physical Planning Act, 1991, the MEC may, subject to the procedures deemed fit by him or her or that he or she may prescribe by notice in the Provincial Gazette, amend or withdraw, whether in whole or in part, a guide plan referred to in section 37(1) of that Act, which is deemed to be a regional structure plan or an urban structure plan by virtue of a declaration contemplated in section 37(2)(a)(ii) of that Act.

(b) any other restrictive condition thus registered or otherwise operative in respect of such land, if the tribunal is of the opinion that the servitude or condition is inconsistent with, or undesirable in relation to, the use, occupation, development or subdivision of the land, and that the suspension of the servitude or condition in terms of any other procedure will unnecessarily delay the land development concerned.

(2) A tribunal may -

(a) where the owner of the dominant tenement in relation to a servitude referred to in subsection (1)(a) or any beneficiary of a condition referred to in subsection (1)(b) is not prepared to grant his or her consent to the suspension of the servitude or condition for a consideration or under conditions which the tribunal regards as a fair consideration or fair conditions; or

CHAPTER VII LAND TENURE MATTERS (secs 61-66)

61 Registration arrangement involving surveyor and conveyancer

(1) Any land development applicant referred to in Chapter V may apply to a tribunal for the approval of a registration arrangement contemplated in this section.

(2) A tribunal shall not refuse an application referred to in subsection (1) if-

(a) the provisions of section 38(2)(a) to (g) have been complied with to the satisfaction of the tribunal;

(b) the tribunal is satisfied that the conveyancer and professional land surveyor responsible for the issuing of the certificates contemplated in subsection (4) are in possession of sufficient insurance which enables them to issue the certificates; and

(c) the tribunal is satisfied, if the land development applicant is the State or a local government body or a person or body with whom the State or local government body has concluded a land availability agreement subject to a suspensive condition that the State or local government body concerned becomes the owner of the land, and if the State or local government body concerned has not yet taken transfer of ownership of the land concerned, that such land has been expropriated in favour of the State or such local government body by any competent authority.

(3) A tribunal may grant an application in terms of subsection (1) subject to the conditions it deems appropriate: Provided that any condition requiring registration in a deeds registry shall be imposed under section 33(2) and not under this subsection.

(4) (a) At any time after an application in terms of subsection (1) has been granted, the professional land surveyor contemplated in subsection (2)(b) may issue a certificate in the prescribed form certifying that the beacons referred to in section 38(2)(c) were placed in terms of that section and to the effect that he or she is of the opinion that there is no substantial risk that a general plan will not be approved accordingly.

(b) At any time after an application in terms of subsection (1) has been granted, and if granted subject to a condition referred to in subsection (3), which condition has to be fulfilled prior to the issuing of a certificate contemplated in this paragraph, after such a condition has been fulfilled, the conveyancer contemplated in subsection (2)(b) may issue a certificate in the prescribed form describing the remaining registrable transactions required in a deeds registry before transfer of ownership of erven in the land development area may be registered as contemplated in section 38(1), and to the effect that he or she is of the opinion that, in the light of the circumstances contemplated in subsection (2)(a) to (c), there is no substantial risk that transfer of ownership of such erven will not be so registered.

(5) The provisions of section 43 relating to professional responsibility and liability apply mutatis mutandis to a certificate referred to in subsection (4).

(6) The land development applicant shall file copies of the certificates referred to in subsection (4) with the designated officer and the originals of such certificates, together with the layout plan and an application by the land development applicant for the registrar to take the steps in terms of subsection (7), shall be lodged with the registrar.

(7) Upon receipt of the certificates and the other documents referred to in subsection (6), the registrar shall make such entries into his or her records as may be necessary in order to-

(a) reflect that a registration arrangement contemplated in this section is in operation in relation to the land development area in question; and

(b) create a separate register for the registration of initial ownership by reference to the numbers of the individual, proposed erven appearing on the layout plan: Provided that the registrar shall not be obliged to create such a register if the land development area is situated within more than one province or within the area of jurisdiction of more than one deeds registry or a deeds registry referred to in section 66.

62 Initial ownership

(1) As soon as the entries referred to in section 61(7) have been made by the registrar, a form of title to be known as initial ownership may be registered in a deeds registry.

(2) The first transfer of initial ownership shall be registered in accordance with the provisions of the Deeds Registries Act, 1937.

(3) The first transfer of initial ownership of an erf in a land development area shall take place by means of a deed of transfer in a form prescribed under the Deeds Registries Act, 1937.

(a) the right to occupy and use the erf concerned as if he or she were the owner thereof;

(b) the right to acquire ownership of such erf as contemplated in subsection (7);

(c) the right to encumber the initial ownership by means of a mortgage or a personal servitude but, subject to paragraph (d) and subsections (5)(b) and (6), not the right otherwise to encumber or deal with the initial ownership: Provided that for the purposes of creating or reserving a personal servitude in terms of this paragraph, a reference to "land" in the Deeds Registries Act, 1937, shall be construed so as to include a reference to a registered right of initial ownership; and

(d) the right to sell such initial ownership.

(5) (a) Land in respect of which initial ownership has been transferred shall not, until the initial ownership has been converted into ownership under subsection (7), in any way be alienated or further encumbered by the owner of that land, except to the extent that it may be necessary to comply with a condition of establishment or to register ownership of the land under section 38(1).

(b) A registrar may, despite the provisions of section 6 of the Deeds Registries Act, 1937, cancel a deed of transfer conveying initial ownership if, subject to subsection (6), the owner of the land concerned, the holder of the initial ownership of the land, the holder of a personal servitude contemplated in subsection (4) (c) and the mortgagee in respect of the initial ownership, or in respect of such personal servitude, if any, agree thereto and such servitude or bond may be cancelled likewise.

(c) No transfer duty or stamp duty shall be payable in respect of a cancellation in terms of paragraph (b).

(6) In the event of initial ownership being sold by the holder thereof or offered for sale during the administration of a deceased estate, a sale in execution, or a sale in consequence of the insolvency or liquidation of the holder of such initial ownership, or where some other event occurs requiring the transfer of such initial ownership, the initial ownership may be transferred in terms of the provisions of the Deeds Registries Act, 1937, as if it were for all purposes a transfer of ownership of land: Provided that such transfer shall not confer upon the transferee any right which the previous holder of initial ownership did not have.

(7) Immediately upon an erf which is the object of initial ownership becoming registrable in ownership as contemplated in section 38(1), such initial ownership shall be converted into ownership and from such conversion the ownership of such erf shall, subject to any right which would, but for section 65, read with section 64(8), have been recorded in a deeds registry, vest exclusively in the person who was the holder of initial ownership in respect of such erf immediately before the conversion.

(8) Upon a conversion into ownership in terms of subsection (7)-

(a) a mortgage bond or personal servitude registered in respect of initial ownership shall be converted into a mortgage or personal servitude in respect of the erf in question; and

(b) such ownership shall be subject to any condition, servitude, mortgage bond or other right registered immediately before such conversion against the title of the erf or land in the land development area concerned.

(9) (a) In order to give effect to subsections (7) and (8), the registrar shall make the necessary entries and endorsements in or on his or her registers and other documents in his or her office or submitted to him or her.

(b) No transfer duty, stamp duty or other fees shall be payable in respect of such entries and endorsements.

(3) The provisions of section 46(3) shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to regulations made under subsection (2).
